

Updated March 26, 2020

Elective Medical Procedures Have Been Canceled

Samaritan clinics and hospitals are cancelling elective surgeries, procedures and clinic visits that can be rescheduled for a later date. Please call first before going to any scheduled appointment.

These measures further social distancing and help protect your health. This will also help conserve supplies and keep health care teams available to care for coronavirus patients and others with pressing medical needs.

Samaritan will reschedule these elective procedures and clinic visits as soon as possible.